

THE HR PROFESSIONAL EXCELLENCE AWARD

The HR Professional Excellence Award, presented by the SHRM Tennessee State Council, recognizes contributions to the Human Resource Profession by any HR Professional working in the State of Tennessee. Nominations for the award will be accepted through August 1, 2010 and presented during the 2010 Tennessee Human Resource Conference at the Wilderness at The Smokies in Sevierville, Tennessee.

Multiple HR Professional Excellence Awards are generally presented at the conference. The following criteria should be considered:

Service to a Local Chapter – Leadership, committee participation, support of chapter activities, attendance, etc.

Service to the HR Profession – SHRM leadership roles at the state, regional or national level, leadership roles in other professional organizations, volunteer activities that increase awareness of and reflect favorably on the role of HR professionals, innovations in HR practices, acting as a resource to peers, mentoring students or young professionals, publications, research, teaching, etc.

Service to the Community – Civic, community or service organization involvement.

Service as a Business Professional – Education, experience, work history, record of professional growth, accomplishments, professional certification, etc.

Awards Committee

Selection of award recipients will be made by a panel of SHRM TN State Council members. Only the panel will know the identity of the honorees until the moment of the award. Nominations can be submitted in any written format but should be specific and as detailed as possible describing exactly why your nominee should be honored.

Nominations

Nominations are normally submitted by individuals, groups or SHRM chapters, but may be submitted by any person or organization which takes part in the activities of the annual SHRM Conference.

Nomination packages must be received NO LATER THAN AUGUST 1, 2010.
NOMINATIONS RECEIVED LATER THAN THAT DATE CAN NOT BE CONSIDERED.

All nominations must be in writing and submitted by e-mail to: DRay@Orgill.com or by mail to Don Ray, c/o Orgill, Inc., 3742 Tyndale Drive, Memphis, TN 38125.
